

THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 6

A PHILOSOPHICAL DEAD BEAT.—"Yes, sir," said a gentlemanly looking man on Washington-st., Saturday, "the panic will have to come—no preventing it. You see that man just going away? Well, he has a bill against me, and he says if I will pay him that he can pay some one else, or, in other words, that if each man will pay what he owes, the others can pay, and that thus, under the rules of political economy, the thing will travel around in a circle. But he didn't calculate that the thing must have a bottom—the circle a break. You see I love him, but the trouble is that no body owes me, and that breaks the circle and the broken circle makes a panic. I am the starter." And he took a peanut and started.

CANDIDATES.
WE ARE authorized to announce Mr. JAS. P. MACHEN as a candidate for nomination for the House of Delegates at the primary election in Fairfax county, to be held on the 7th instant. sep-3-to

DEAR SIR: We, your friends and neighbors, who have known you intimately in all the relations of life, desire to present you to the voters of Fairfax county as a candidate for the next House of Delegates.

We can fully endorse you as an intelligent, upright and pains-taking man of business, with qualifications which eminently fit you for usefulness in that body, and in whom we can entirely confide. We respectfully urge the use of your name.

To H. Barnes Kerrick, esq., Markham station. J. A. Marshall, James L. Strother, James M. Marshall, E. H. Kidwell, James B. Green, George Strother, Alfred Cable, W. A. Martin, Robt. M. Strubling, Wm. C. Marshall, W. A. Hoffman, John Pearson, A. W. Phillips, John White.

MARKHAM STATION, Aug. 21st, 1875.
Messrs. J. A. Marshall, Geo. Strother, Robert M. Strubling, &c.
Gentlemen: In reply to your flattering invitation, I can only say that you may, at your pleasure, submit my name to the Conservative party, either in convention or by primary election, as it may be selected for its nomination, with the pledge from me that if elected I will leave nothing undone to sustain the honor and integrity of the State, which I believe to be entirely identified with the success of the measures of the Conservative party.

Thanking you most kindly, I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant and fellow citizen.
aug-21m H. BARNES KERRICK.

A CARD—At the request of many voters, I offer myself a candidate to represent Fairfax county in the next House of Delegates of Virginia. I will not submit to the action of a county convention, which, according to the present organization of the Conservative party, is only calculated to defeat the will of the majority of the people; but as I fully recognize the importance of securing a Conservative representation and maintaining the unity of the party, I am ever ready to submit to a primary election, where every voter has a chance to cast his vote for the candidate he prefers.

I feel it right to state the general principles which will govern my action, if you should think proper to elect me. I consider ours a confederated republic. All power emanating from the people, the government officers are the servants of the people, and should at all times feel their responsibility and duty to serve them for the public good. The general government, as well as State governments, are bound by written constitutions, and have no right to exercise any power not therein delegated.

The State policy should be so shaped as to give all possible encouragement to the business interests of the State. Agriculture, commerce and manufactures constituting the basis of all prosperity in a country, should be fostered and encouraged by the laws of the State. A free school system is indispensable to a free country, and should be sustained by an amendment of the law dividing the townships into school districts of proper size and electing three trustees for each district by the patrons of each school, who shall manage the schools without compensation, and without county superintendents, saving all the school for the benefit of the children.

The commerce of the State should be secured as much as possible to our own cities. Public and private credit should be sustained as much as possible by law.

Reputation of the State debt has been talked of in some quarters, and should be condemned by every honest man. It would be a crime and curse upon the State from which it would never recover.

Interest on money should be uniform through out the State, and should be so fixed as to secure the money of the State for the business interests of the State.

The present rate of taxation is ample to carry on the government and pay off the State debt it wisely and economically applied.

J. R. PUGH.
Centerville, Fairfax co., Aug. 12-1w

TO THE VOTERS OF FAIRFAX COUNTY.—At the solicitation of many friends, I announce myself a candidate for re-election to the next House of Delegates of Virginia. In recognizing the importance to the best interests of the State and of the success of the Conservative party, I make this announcement, subject to the action of the party in determining who shall be their candidate, believing that the harmony and success of the party can be best maintained by organization; and I trust that at the meeting to be held at August Court some satisfactory mode may be adopted by which, in the selection of a candidate, that result may be attained.

Conservatism, in the darkest days of our history, saved us from the fate of our Southern sister States, and it is at this time our strength and hope, and I sincerely trust that its harmony may be preserved. If I shall again be nominated by you, in being selected as your candidate, I can only promise that, as in the past, my best abilities will be directed to the maintenance of the honor and integrity of our beloved commonwealth, and to the adoption of such measures as will tend to the material prosperity of the county and State.

R. H. COCKERILLE.

The Montpelier Female Humane Association, chartered by the Legislature of Virginia and the Circuit Court of Orange county, proposes, by a series of Grand Gift Concerts, to establish and endow a "Home for the Old, Infirm and Destitute Ladies of Virginia," at Montpelier, the former residence of President Jas. Madison. The Association is under the control of eight trustees, six of whom are elected annually by the stockholders and two appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

Governor's Office, Richmond, July 3, '74. It affords me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with a large majority of the officers of the Montpelier Female Humane Association who reside in the vicinity of my home, and attest their intelligence and their worth and high reputation as gentlemen, as well as the public confidence, influence and substantial means liberally represented among them.

Alexandria, Va., July 8th, 1874. My personal acquaintance with a majority of the gentlemen controlling the Montpelier Female Humane Association and the reputation of all of them enables me to commend them as fully entitled to the confidence of the public. No act of representation inconsistent with honor and integrity need be apprehended in the conduct or representations of these gentlemen.
